Li didn't miss the signal of danger. He started to ease the traffic and directed passing cars tobypass the questionable road surface.

??

It was not an easy job as the crossing was quite busy. Soon, he brought some road cones fromnearby and blocked the area. His colleagues came and helped him to surround the area to warn thepassing vehicles to stay away from it.

??

It was only four minutes from the time Li noticed the problem and set up all the cones. Then, atwo-meter-deep sinkhole appeared. Thanks to the police's foresight, nobody was hurt.
