导读:埃及航空公司新闻中心19日表示,该公司此前发布的“确认已找到失联客机残骸”的信息系翻译错误,目前仍无法确认海面漂浮物系埃及航空公司MS804航班客机的残骸。

CAIRO, May 20, 2016 (Xinhua) --Egypt's Civil Aviation Minister Sherif Fathy speaks at a press conference in Cairo, Egypt, on May 19, 2016. Sherif Fathy told the press conference Thursday that the EgyptAir passenger jet that disappeared earlier in the morning is still "missing" until its wreckage is found.

CAIRO, May 20 (Xinhua) -- A translation mistake of EgyptAir's press release about finding wreckage of the missing flight MS804 has caused misunderstanding, a source from EgyptAir told Xinhua.

An EgyptAir source, who spoke on condition of anonymity, said the Arabic version of a press statement on the "possibility of finding parts of the missing airplane" was mistakenly translated into English by EgyptAir's official Facebookpage, which caused "confusion."

The source further explained that EgyptAir "has never confirmed the finding of any wreckage," a translation mistake was the reason behind the "confusion."
