In 1994, 22-year-old Huang was working in Hainan's Chengmai County. On July 7 of that year, he returned to his hometown in Qiongsan County because he heard that Huang Hengyong, a gangster in a neighboring village, had been killed in a gang fight.

"My father saw me and said, 'The young people have all gone--why do you come back?'" Huang recalled. However, since he didn't think the incident had anything to do with him, he didn't give it much thought. But when people reported him to the police, accusing him of the murder, the police listed him as a suspect.
